

The Elmer and Rita Henry Family Legacy Scholarship

The 2017-2018 school year marks the end of an era at Nativity School for the Elmer and Rita Henry Family. Elmer and Rita Henry have had either children or grandchildren at Nativity every year for the past 50 years: Ann (Henry) Thomason and her children Danny, Maggie and Michael; Rachel (Henry) Redmond; Jeanne (Henry) Hanch and her children Rita Rose and Rebecca; Rosie (Henry) Johnson and her children, Wade, Brock, Cale and Luke; and Billy Henry and his children Isabel and Desmond.

To continue their legacy, a new Nativity scholarship is being offered in the name of the Henry Family for Nativity School families to apply toward their Nativity tuition.

Eligibility: Any family that has 2 or more children/grandchildren enrolled at Nativity (Preschool – 8th Grade) for the 2018-2019 school year.

Requirements: Any student in the family can submit an essay (300-500 words) about “What my family means to me”.

Deadline for submission: Essays must be received by April 9, 2018.

Ways to submit: Essays must be typed. Essays can be printed and turned into the school office or emailed to saddison@nativityofmary.org.

Selection Criteria: Anonymous essays will be read by members of the Henry Family to select the winner.

Award: At least one $500 scholarship will be awarded on an annual basis in May and applied to the first tuition statement in July. Additional scholarships may be awarded based on funds available at the discretion of the Henry family.

Instructions: Cover page of submission should include family name and names and grade levels of students enrolled at Nativity (for 2018-2019 school year). Essay should be submitted beginning on a separate page with no reference to family name.

Publishing rights: All essays submitted may be printed in Nativity publications.
